

Innovation Award

The Innovation Award recognizes a company with the most innovative activity for promoting health and well-being for the employees and the organization.

The award will be presented to the winning company's CEO or other senior management representative at the 12th Annual CEO Working Breakfast on January 30, 2018. Nominees must be able to attend the breakfast.

Nominations should be accompanied by:

- Completed application cover sheet. Check the appropriate box for the Innovation award.
- A one-page narrative describing the innovative activity and why you feel it is worthy of this award. (e.g. overall goal, description, implementation, budget, percent participation, and outcomes)
- Any supporting documentation as appropriate (photos, newsletters, videos*, etc).
- At least two letters from employees who feel this activity has tied the wellness program to the overall organization

Submit your nomination by email by January 5, 2018 to:

If you have any questions concerning the application, please contact Melissa Dancer at 850-431-3720 or wellness@tmh.org

In evaluating the nominations, a committee from the Working Well board will consider such matters as:

- The uniqueness of this activity, thus making it an innovation
- The goals and outcomes
- The success of participation in this activity
- The feedback received from the employees and administration regarding this activity
- The challenges in implementing this activity
